Defining organisational fields

Collecting information not available on standard forms

For example, you may want to add:

- The age band in which the student falls – you can do this using a numerical range (for example, 18–25).
- The student's intended language course or University department – you can do this by creating a drop-down list containing all those available.
- The student's home country – you may choose to do this using a box to type in the country name.

There are three stages:

1. Create the fields.
2. Decide whether they must contain some information before the record can be saved (mandatory fields).
3. Decide where you would like to use them.

Defining organisational fields

Creating the fields

Stage 1: creating fields and specifying content type

1. Click the Admin tab and select Manage organisation settings.
2. Click Define organisation fields in the list on the left.
3. Give the field a Title – this is the label that will be seen when filling in the form.
4. Choose the type of information you want to capture:
 - Free format will provide a text box for the answer to be typed.
 - Numeric range lets you specify upper and lower boundaries for a numeric answer.
 - If you want a drop-down list, type each list entry in its own Category box. You can have up to 10 categories.
5. Click save. Click OK to close the acknowledgement message.

Note: You can define up to four organisation fields.

The image displays three overlapping screenshots of the 'Define organisation fields' interface. Each screenshot shows a tabbed interface with four tabs labeled 'Field 1', 'Field 2', 'Field 3', and 'Field 4'. The top screenshot shows 'Field 1' selected, with the title 'Home country', 'Free format' checked, and 'Numeric range' empty. The middle screenshot shows 'Field 2' selected, with the title 'Age range', 'Free format' unchecked, and 'Numeric range' from 18 to 25. The bottom screenshot shows 'Field 3' selected, with the title 'Course', 'Free format' unchecked, and four 'Category' boxes containing 'Course title 1', 'Course title 2', 'Course title 3', and an empty box.
